LOOK TO DIRECTORS

STENSLAND WAS NEVER REQUIRED TO ACCOUNT FOR FUNDS.

HERRING WILL SURRENDER

Cashier of Mulcted Bank Declares His Innocence of Any Wrong Doing and Describes Method of Carrying Out Orders of President.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Evidence which may lead to the prosecution of the directors for responsibility for President Stensland's securing $1,300,000 by forgery was among the developments yesterday touching the mulcted Milwaukee avenue bank. Stensland was never required to account for the vast amount of money which apparently was being borrowed by small tradesmen and small depositors of the bank. Their negligence will be made the subject of investigation by the grand jury.

The Tribune today says: Cashier Henry W. Herring is in Chicago and will surrender today. In an interview with a Tribune reporter last night it is said that Herring asserted his innocence of wrong doing, declaring that he merely carried out the orders of Stensland. Herring said that about five weeks ago he handed Stensland memoranda of notes footing up $520,000 which he had reason to believe should not be among the assets of the bank, and told him that this indebtedness should be fixed up some way. To this, Herring said that Stensland replied that he had buyers for some of his property and expected to fix the matter up soon.

Herring described Stensland's operations as follows: "He would come to me and have me make out a certain number of notes for given amounts. I sent him the notes in the regular routine of business and later they were returned to me with the alleged signatures of various persons. Stensland then ordered me to place them to the credit of his personal account, and would then draw checks on his personal account for the various enterprises which dragged him to ruin."

Bank Examiner Jones said today that part of Cashier Herring's published defense he believed to be true; other parts he said he knew to be untrue. He declined to be more explicit. Herring, Jones said, was under heavy bonds, while Stensland was not as far as he had been able to learn.

A warrant charging violation of the state banking laws in taking deposits when he knew the bank was insolvent was sworn out today against Theodore Stensland, vice president of the Milwaukee Avenue Bank.

LATER:—Cashier Herring did not surrender to the police at 1 o'clock this afternoon, as the Tribune announced this morning he would do.

FOR GRAND OFFICERS.

Order of Eastern Star Will Entertain After School of Instruction Tomorrow Night.

Mrs. J. E. Miller, of Albuquerque, Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star in New Mexico, Mrs. Ed Harsch, of Albuquerque, Grand Secretary of the jurisdiction, and Mrs. O. S. Warren, of Silver City, the first Grand Matron in the history of the order for New Mexico, elected when the first chapter was started some years ago, arrived today in the automobile from Torrance to make an annual visit to the local Chapter O. E. S. They will conduct a school of instruction at the Masonic Hall tomorrow night, after which they will be given a reception at the hall.

From here the grand officers go to Hagerman to organize a Chapter Saturday, and then to Artesia, where they will organize another the first of the week. Local members will assist in this work.

TO PURCHASE SILVER FOR SUBSIDIARY COINAGE.

Washington, Aug. 9.—It was announced at the treasury department today that the purchase of silver bullion for subsidiary coinage would be resumed. Purchases will be made each Wednesday, beginning the 15th instant. About 100,000 ounces will be required each week.

More Peaches From Winston Ranch. W. E. Winston brought to the Record some fine apples and peaches today. They were fine ones. They were different from the ordinary ones. There were more of them. They were brought in for the force to eat—and everybody got all he wanted. It was a reminder of the old days when the grower did not bring in a few samples under glass for a "write-up" but really wanted to make the newspaper force happy.

Piano Tuning. Expert piano tuning, re-polishing and repairing, both pianos and organs. Great reduction on pianos. Easy payments.—P. V. Music Co. t-th-s-04tf.

The editor of the Record believes that he lives in the best neighborhood in town. After having received some fine specimens of apples and peaches at the office this morning he went home to dinner and found that one neighbor had sent in a mess of roasting ears, another a gallon of buttermilk, and still another a pie.

Postmaster Robert Kellahin went to Torrance on the auto today. He will return tomorrow.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

Executive Committee Appointed by Commercial Club and Citizens for Entertainment of Cattlemen's Convention Meet and Organize.

The committee appointed to make plans for the entertainment of the Panhandle Cattlemen's Association has chosen officers as follows:

GEO. M. SLAUGHTER, Pres.

C. C. TANNEHILL, Secy.

The other members of the committee are: J. P. WHITE,

W. S. PRAGER and J. F. HINKLE.

On the occasion of the Panhandle Cattle Raisers' Association meeting here in April next 1,500 or 2,000 visitors are expected from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico with many representatives from all the principal cattle markets.

Additional committees will be appointed from time to time, and arrangements be made to take care of and entertain the visitors. Several forms of entertainment will be provided, excursions down the valley, etc., as well as an exhibition and sale of fine cattle.

This will be one of the first big cattle conventions after going into effect of the new meat inspection law and regulation of the packers, and is expected to be a very important one and largely attended. For this reason it is deemed wise to prepare in time and give the cow punchers an old time rousing reception and entertainment as only Roswell can. The convention is expected to last four days, and there will be excursion rates from all points west of Kansas City and Dallas.

ENDLESS PRAYER CHAIN.

Has Invaded New Mexico and May Even Reach Arizona.

Some religious lunatic has devised the "endless prayer" chain and has opened correspondence with residents of this city known to be of religious proclivities, says the Albuquerque Citizen. The letters contain the form of a prayer which the writer says was prepared by Bishop Lawrence, who recommended the forging of the endless prayer chain. Although the prayer was apparently intended for the ears of the Most High as all Christian prayers are, this one is to be sent to nine persons and by each of them to another nine, and so on, presumably until the population of the whole world shall be in receipt of it. The writer appeals to the terror of the recipients. If they do not forward the paper it will be the worse for them. He writes: "He who will not say it will be afflicted by some misfortune. One person who paid no attention to it, met with a dreadful accident. He who will rewrite this prayer and distribute it to nine other persons commencing on the day it is received, and sending only one each day, will on or after the ninth day experience great joy. At Jerusalem, during the Holy Feast, it was said he who will rewrite this prayer will be delivered from every calamity. Please do not break the chain."—Las Vegas Optic.

The letter has also reached Roswell, even members of the Record force being threatened should they pay no attention to its directions. To save postage we may decide to publish the prayer, but for the present have contented ourselves by doing a little figuring. By a process well known to the average high school boy, we find that should every person who receives the letter write to nine other persons, and if the chain continued unbroken in any part, allowing one week for the transmission of each letter written, it would be only seven weeks from the writing of the first series of nine letters until something over five million letters would be written. Of course there would be repetitions, many persons receiving more than one of the letters, and most people paying no attention to it. Hence we go back to the proposition of only two letters instead of nine, which is certainly enough margin for the failure of correspondents to carry out the instructions. Allowing a week as before for the transmission of each letter with nine to start with and multiplying by two instead of nine after the first week, it would be less than six months until one billion letters a day would be written. In addition to this we might add that the postal authorities will get you if you don't look out.

Two More Delivery Wagons.

The grocery trade of Jaffa, Prager & Co. has grown wonderfully the past few months and they have experienced some trouble in making prompt delivery of goods. Mr. Jaffa has ordered two more delivery wagons and will soon be prepared to make the quickest delivery in town.

Received Car of Rams.

Elza White, secretary of the Chaves County Sheep Breeders and Wool Growers' Association, today received a full car of Baldwin rams from Hay Creek, Oregon. The rams are Delaine and Rambouillet, and are as fine a lot as ever received here. Mr. White has been buying and selling Baldwin rams for some time, and is of the opinion that they are the best for this section of New Mexico. There were 226 rams in this car, and tomorrow they will be taken to the L. F. D. Farm and will be disposed of from that point.

FROM DENVER IN AN AUTO.

J. M. Miller Arrives in His Touring Car and Reports Interesting Trip.

J. M. Miller arrived today from Denver in his new touring car which he bought last week in Denver. He came the entire distance in the car with Earl Mace, a 16-year-old boy sent out by the dealers at Denver. They made the trip in seven days, less 25 minutes, and this includes all stops at towns and places where roads had to be repaired or bridges built. The actual running time was between 50 and 55 hours, and the distance traveled was about 800 miles.

Twenty-eight years ago Mr. Miller made a trip over the same route with his family—but then he drove ox teams, and it took two months to make the trip.

His memory of the road was clear and he knew it to be a good one in those days. He wanted to see the country again and decided to come by auto. He found the road rough and not kept up like it was 28 years ago. Through the Raton mountains many places were very bad and several bridges were washed out. In several places they had to drive the machine up the beds of streams, over boulders and through mud and water. After leaving Raton Pass, the next bad place was in the level country, where the wheel tracks were washed so deep the road could not be used and sometimes the machine had to be run over rough ground for two or three miles. The route taken was from Denver to, Colorado Springs, thence to Pueblo, thence to Walsenburg, Trinidad, Raton, Las Vegas, Pastura and Torrance and then across the automobile road to Roswell. The road of the Roswell Automobile Company was the best on the trip, being even better for auto-mobiling than the fine road between Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mr. Miller's new auto is a 19½ horse-power touring car with seats for five persons. It came over the long, rough road without a scratch as good as the day it started. There were but two minor breaks, and neither of these interfered with the running of the car.

HEALER'S FIRST MEETING.

Eleven Citizens Go Forward to Receive Treatment.

Rev. Henry Blandford, of London, England, the faith healer, held his first meeting on the Lea lots last night. He had seats for a hundred people and perhaps three hundred were present. Seats will be provided for all the aged and afflicted tonight and for as many others as possible. The meetings are being held for the purpose of healing the sick and a great many of the health-seekers of Roswell were there last night.

The meeting was devoted to an explanation of the healer's theories and a demonstration of how he gives his treatment. After his explanation eleven persons came forward asking to be cured of various ailments.

The meetings will be continued continued nightly, at eight o'clock.
